The Lacey A's were able to come from behind to defeat the Westside Jacks 4-2 in a Hub City Fastpitch League game at Borst Park in Centralia on Tuesday.

Lacey starting pitcher Butch Geisler started in the circle. The 71-year old pitched to 14-year old Allison Baumgart during Geisler's time in the circle. NAFA Hall of Famer Trevor Knight earned the win in the circle for Lacey in a relief appearance.

At the plate, Colton Turner hit a home run for the A's.

RJ Cano started in the circle for Westside in the loss. Levi Tate pitched three scoreless innings in relief for the Jacks.
